

On motion by Mr. Stoddert, the words "and the property thereon" were inserted after the word "land" in the second line of the same section.

On motion by Mr. Kell, the following words were added at the end of the 6th section, "nor shall any tax for the making or repairing of the public roads or bridges of the county, out of the limits aforesaid, be levied upon the property within those limits."

On motion by Mr. Stoddert, the blank in the 7th section of the bill was filled up with the names of "John Beale Howard, Joseph Ford, Caleb Merryman, Labon Welsh, and Robert Lyon."

On motion by Mr. Kell, the question was put, That the following be inserted at the end of the 7th section of the bill? "And be it enacted, That the inhabitants of the city and precincts, as extended and enlarged by this act, shall, if the same be confirmed by the general assembly of Maryland at its first session after the next election of delegates, be entitled to send two additional members to the general assembly of this state, who shall have the like qualifications, and be elected in the like manner, throughout the several wards within the limits aforesaid, as the delegates from said city are now elected; and such additional delegates shall have the like privileges, and be subject to the like authorities, with other members of the house of delegates; and upon the confirmation of this act the provisions thereof for the election of such two additional delegates, shall become a part of the constitution and form of government of this state." The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.
